CARE AND TREATMENT OF JERSEY CATTLE.

PRIZE ESSAY, BY MRS. ELLA ROCKWOOD.

Perhaps no breed of cattle possesses in a greater degree susceptibility to treatment, kind or unkind, than the Jersey. The peculiar nervous temperament so essential in a perfect dairy cow is one of her strongest characteristics.

Look at the bright, intelligent face of a Jersey, and you will see the eyes, large, lass-like eyes, bright and glistering. Look at the thin, dilating face of a cow, the eyes, bright and glistering, with their orange lining, which seem to scent danger like a deer, and seeing, know that this queen among cows demands and well deserves the most careful handling and kindest treatment to bring out her good qualities and keep them at their best.

No cow, from the scrub to the thoroughbred, can do her best unless under circumstances conducive to quiet and content; and although cows of more sluggish temperament may bear ill-usage with little apparent regard, it is not with the sensitive Jersey, and she soon departs.

From calvhood she should have reason to regard her master as her friend. No blows or harsh words should teach her to fear him; but she should expect and receive only caresses and kind words. Under such treatment she will develop a gentle, kind disposition.

She should be taught to lead by a halter to the milking stool or milking parlor to bear handling of the odder longer before she reaches maturity; so that she may be quiet and easily handled, instead of being wild and unmanageable, as heifers often are at that time. No breaking-in will be necessary, and if it is desirable to dispose of her she will bring a better price than one that has never been treated.

Do not make the mistake of thinking that when she drops her first calf it is time enough to begin feeding her; she should have been fed from her birth with this in view.

No supplemental food is better than ground oats as a help in developing the Jersey calf. As soon as she begins to eat she should have a little, night and morning, fed dry. Begin with half a pint of feed, or even less, and gradually increase the quantity until boosis will take a pint at a feeding. Keep her thirsty and growing. A calf once stunted by insufficient or improper food will never make so good a growth as she would otherwise have been.

The grain ration should be increased as the heifer grows, and at the arrival of the milking period she should, after the first few days, be given a generous quantity of such food as best suits her taste in producing milk.

While there are various grain foods recommended by dairymen for the general feeder and for milch cows, for the general feeder and the average cow nothing is better than a mixture of our part cornmeal, our part oatmeal and two of wheat bran. Of this, feed as much as after experimenting with your cow you find gives best results in milk and butter.

Each cow is a law unto herself as to the amount of food she can profitably consume. It takes more to produce a like amount in one cow than another. Up to the extent of her capacity, the greater the amount consumed the greater the returns at the point in feed beyond her capacity to convert the food into milk and butter she is fed at a loss; the extra food goes to make fat.

A liberal allowance of coarse pasture should also be fed. Clover hay, corn fodder, ensilage—all are good. Roots are valuable as a food for milch cows. Carrots are perfect best, with sugar beets next. Turnips and rutabagas will flavor the butter.

Fure water should always be within reach of the cows. No other domestic animals are more susceptible to heat, and a shank of the milk will follow if she is deprived of it in abundance.

While Jersey as a breed are unsurpassed as butter-makers, there is a wide range in their value in this respect. Each cow should be tested and the best only kept.

In regard to testing, it is not always best to test her butter; it is the best cow.

Other things should be taken into consideration—quantity of milk and length of milk period during the year. These should be considered before deciding on a cow showing a medium amount of butter-fat may make up in quantity of milk during the year what a single test of her butter-fat lacks.

Mr. Sam Cox, of Stephensport, visited his brother, Mr. Z. T. Cox, several days last week.

Miss Casperie and Woolfolk, of Brandenburg, were in town last Friday on business.

Mr. Kate Norton and Miss Mamie Daugherty visited friends in Brandenburg last Friday.

Mr. W. W. Willcutt visited the family of Dr. Judson Ladd, at Buck Grove, several days last week.

Mr. B. Reed, of Elizabethtown, was called to the bedside of his father, Mr. Tom Roberts, who is very low with pneumonia.

Misses Jennie Hardin and Eva Hernand, and Mr. Yandal Hay, of Brandenburg, visited the family of Mr. Dan Roberts last week.

Misses Lula Flannery, accompanied by her little niece, Altha Owings, of Wolf Creek, and her brother, Mr. Ike Owings, last week.

Prof. Hays and Mr. James Dugan, of Sircroft, and Professor Shuckett, of Hardinsburg, were in town the 25th, to attend the college meeting.

Brother Dan Shuckett, who is attending the Baptist Seminary in Louisville, came down to fulfill his engagement at Salem church, first Sunday.

Misses Mamie Osborne, Lulu Ray, and Helen Pollock, and Moses, Sam Brown and Tom Pollock, of Goshen, attended the college meeting.

Mr. Tim McAlister, of Brandenburg, was visiting some friends in town last Monday. Tim's a "hustler," and we hope in the near future he will make his home in our little town, and be initiated as a true "Ekroneite."

We know that Unlucky Sal's poetry was appreciated by one reader of the Messenger. And with gushing breath do we await the arrival of the 11:10 mail, for we know when Bobby's Bar reaches Thar, we shall hear of the death of Guston's correspondent.

We were unaware that our poetry was being read or praised by so many, until our attention was called to the item con-

We know that Unlucky Sal's poetry was appreciated by one reader of the Messenger. And with gushing breath do we await the arrival of the 11:10 mail, for we know when Bobby's Bar reaches Thar, we shall hear of the death of Guston's correspondent.

We were unaware that our poetry was being read or praised by so many, until our attention was called to the item concerned in the correspondent's letter from Guston. "Thanks a awful lot." We are not a bit jealous and consider it a pleasure to share a part of the praise with our neighbors. We do not profess to be a poet by any means, or would we attempt such a thing as trying to reach the high standard you have attained in poetry, it is for beyond our power that it reminds us of our own. I have a picture of a pocky checked apple? that has been placed far beyond the length of its little arm and fat, dimpled hand. Unlike the child, we will not try to possess what we could never reach. And by so degrees the hard reality steals over us, and that is if our neighbor still wants part of the pleasure of our poetry. I have a picture of a pocky checked apple? that has been placed far beyond the length of its little arm and fat, dimpled hand. Unlike the child, we will not try to possess what we could never reach. It is reported at Hardinsburg that a number of the wealthy taxpayers of that vicinity have given a big bond for the purpose of indemnifying the county against loss should the Magistrates refuse to levy the tax to pay the interest on the railroad bonds voted by McCracken & Co. The court, however, held that McCracken & Co., obtained a judgment against Hardinsburg and a part of the rough Creek districts in the Federal Court at Louisville, for the money, but now it is said the case is to be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States by the defendants, and the citizens want the Magistrates to withhold their action in making a levy until the matter is determined there.

The Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners held a meeting at Frankfort last week to determine the position of the convicts that the Mason-Ford company leases is about to expire. Attorney General Hendrick offered a resolution providing that the Legislature be called upon to frame a law providing for working the convicts on the public roads of the State. The suggestion is not out of order. If such a move would result in giving us better roads, it ought to be adopted.

The County Levy Court is in session at Hardinsburg this week. It is the duty of the court to assess the property in the county and to appoint a responsible man to attend the Good Roads Convention which meets at Bowling Green on the 14th of this month. The subject of bettering the road system in this State is one that is just now attracting general attention, and Breckinridge should not be left out. Let us interest ourselves more on the question of good roads for our county.

Is there anything in a name, Well we shall see. There is a Democratic club in this county called the Carlisle club. It is the duty of the club to take in John G. Carlisle. Parties here about wanting some of the public office should not fail to call the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury to this fact when they visit Washington.

A young man would use the same amount of energy, push and economy here at home that he does in Florida or any other State he could accomplish just as much. The chances for making money are just as good in Kentucky as any other State in the Union. Get down to business and keep everlasting at it and you'll win.

A. R. SUTTON a prominent whisky dealer of Louisville, has been locked up on the charge of forgery. He is said to have swindled a number of Louisville banks of large sums by forging receipts. He is a prominent and well-known whisky dealer, and had the confidence of the public for many years.

John Allen Murray, Hon. Will Miller and Hon. D. H. Severs were appointed delegates to represent this county at the Road Convention, which meets at Bowling Green next Wednesday. This is the initial step towards good roads in Breckinridge, it is said to the credit of the county court.

They say now that the calls on the President have become so numerous that the cranks have fallen in line. Two of them called at the White House last week and had to be ushered off in a hurry. Cleve land should be shamed. It was a crack that tackled Garfield.

The fight for the Collectorship in the Owensboro district is still going on quietly. Mr. Cottrell, the attorney for Dempsey, called on Mr. Carlisle last week, but got nothing direct as to what the appointment would be made. Congressman Ellis is endorsing Mr. Dempsey.

Mr. Cottrell is a great teacher. His sermon on Sunday was grand, was rather bright for his age and the audience brought great grief upon his fond parents and brothers and sisters.

It is all that the Owensboro Messenger could have had in Timon April up "set up" and ready to "go in" when one of the boys caught on to his little remark.

Con. Gen. Richardson, of Meade county, failing to get the United States Marshals place for Kentucky, has now filed his application for the position of Revenue Agent.

The daughter of a Kansas postmaster is an applicant for a position as postage stamp agent at the World's Fair. She's a darling and only weighs 47 pounds.

PRESIDENT Cleveland favors an extra session of Congress for the purpose of disposing of the tariff question. It will be called in September or October.

Gen. E. Kirby Smith, the last of the full Generals of the Confederacy, died in Tennessee last week at the age of 70.

LOUISVILLE has given it out that she wants the State Capitol bad, and will vote a million dollars for the purpose of erecting all necessary buildings.

Tue. St. Louis Globe-Democrat says John Sherman is the greatest living Republican and William A. Burt is next.

The Hawesville Plaindealer is getting a move on itself here of late. Competition is the life of trade.

Gov. Brown acted wisely in bringing his discussion with Ex-Gov. Buckner to a close.

The stationary boiler has been thoroughly repaired and is now in operation again. The familiar shops' whistle now greets you ears three times a day. Every department is running with a full force of men, and lots of work to do. Good times are coming.

Large wheel lathes have been placed in the shop, at a cost of about $5,000, and is now in successful operation. With this addition, the machine drivers and their motives are shaped, and many other things done that the Texas had to get done elsewhere before its erection. The Texas now has complete shops as any road, if they are not quite so large. Everything needed in the repairing of locomotives, and other machinery can be done right here in Cloverport. We are still progressing.

R. B. Pierce will deliver ice at three-quarter cent per pound. Will have regular wagons running as soon as the demand is sufficient.

As the weather is improving our little city is taking on a more brisk business appearance, and we can look for better times than ever this summer.

PUBLIC AUCTION!

J. FLAGE CARTER'S

First Annual Stock Sale!

IRVINGTON, KY., Friday, April 14th, 1893.

Consisting of HORSES, CATTLE, HOGS and SHEEP. At the head of the list stands

BEN HERR and DUPLEX

The last of Shelby Girl's Colts, which met with an accident last winter that cost her her life. This remarkable mare was sired by Shelby Chief, he by Alexander's Abdallah, dam by Hinton's Eclipse, he by American Eclipse, was a five gaited animal and could trot a mile in 2:38. Her ability to produce combined horses from gaited sires and full fledged trotters from trotting sires seems wonderful

BEN HERR, is a combined three year old stallion, black, no white, in form closely resembles his world renowned ancestor American Eclipse, leaving out low wethers. See American Cyclopedias of Live Stock, page 212. Sired by Royal Denmark N. S. R. No.—his pedigree runs down through America's grandest old sires of the turf, such as Denmark, Sr., Gray Eagle, Woodpecker, Bertram, Sir Archie, Diomed, Sumpter and Hedgeford. Dam, Shelby Girl, His gaits are natural, he has not been ridden over a half dozen times. He was driven two weeks to harness to cultivate his square trot.

DUPLEX, stallion, yearling fast color bay, sired by Aberdeen Star, he by Alexander's Abdallah. Dam, Shelby Girl, making him an inbred Abdallah. He can't do anything but trot. Alexander's Abdallah, was the sire of Goldsmith's Maid, with 332 heats in 2:30 and better to her credit, and closed her career in 1877, after she was 20 years old, trotting in that year 41 heats under 2:30 and down as low as 2:14. The American Cyclopedias of Live Stock, page 139, sums her up as the marvel of the age. Bids by mail on Duplex accompanied by good Commercial Reference will be honored.

The colt is thin in flesh, but sound, and will be sold at a sacrifice. He will be two years old in May 1893, is nearly 15 hands high.

GRETNA GREEN, four year old mare by Kyler. Dam Cubit, a fast pacer, was put in training one month, but two years old, can do a mile in 34, then used for family driving, very gentle. I recommend her to be safe as any horse of her age.

GOL CONDA, eight year-old gelding, safe family driver. Pedigree not traced.

YOUNG JIM, four-year-old gelding by Kyler. Dam, a McLackey. Does all farm work kindly on the off. Wouldn't recommend him to be a safe family horse. Will give a written guarantee that these horses are sound and just what I represent them.

CATTLE, twelve head three-year-old steers, corn fed, all dehorned, two milk cows and some yearlings.

SHEEP, about sixty-five ewes, with and without lambs, clipped.

HOGS, twenty head of very fine stock hogs.

TERMS OF SALE.—A credit of six months without interest, with bond and approved security, except on Ben Herr, a longer time will be given, which will be made known on day of sale. To those wanting to pay cash, a discount will be given. The cause of selling my entire string of fancy-bred horses, is that I am convinced that the Silo is better adapted to wintering stock of the Bovine Species, a thing I expect to make a specialty of in the future.

JOHN L. HENRY will assist in the management of the sale, and settle all disputes that may arise, fairly—Mr. D. W. HENRY will furnish the wind. Everything put up will be sold regardless of price. Sale commences promptly at 1 o'clock.

J. FLAGE CARTER.

P. S.—Six to ten new Buggies, Spring Wagons, Carts and Surries, will be sold on same day publicly, for R. M. Jolly and J. W. Piggott. On credit of six months with approved security. Six per cent. interest from date.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1893.

MULDRAUGH.

Mr. Henry Mossbarger has brought on his spring goods.

Mr. George Critcher and sister have returned from Grove.

Mr. Arthur Smith, who has been working in New Albany, Ind., has returned home.

Mrs. Ben. Winterbauer gave a party Thursday evening, which was quite an enjoyable affair.

Misses Minnie Withers spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bettie Moremen, of Valley Station.

Miss Minnie Pusey, one of Louisville's most fashionable modiste spent Easter with her father, Mr. George Pusey.

Toga Springs will be opened about the first of May under the management of Messrs. James Maynard and J. T. Dawson.

Mr. Creed and Tom. Haynes spent several days in Vine Grove last week, the guests of their sister, Mrs. Jim. Smith.

Mr. S. L. Monarch and family, who have been visiting her father, Mr. J. B. Withers, returned to their home in Owensboro Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Clark, of Louisville, will take charge of Chrystal Lake this summer. We are expecting a good time this summer going to picnics and barbecues.

Misses Edna and Bettie Harrington were taken very sick with the mumps while visiting in New Albany, Ind. Mr. Bert Maguers accompanied them home. We hope to see them out again soon.

Mr. E. B. W. McFie, of Louisville, bought Mr. Myrtle's farm on which they expect to plant 15,000 peach trees. Mr. Monarch is a well-known distiller of Owensboro. Their anticipations are to erect a large distillery to utilize the fruit that is not saleable.

Mr. Abe Warren while cutting in a clearing, fell a tree on his leg, which broke it. They sent in various directions for the doctors. They decided to go because he was a poor man. After a poor old man had suffered 24 hours, one of our good neighbors took the money and placed it in the hands of one of all directions loaded down with ties.

FALLS OF ROUGH.

We have several cases of gripe at the Falls, but all were out enjoying the gladsome Easter.

The dam has proved a great success, and is a lasting monument to the skill of the late Mr. Bennett.

Farmers are very busy putting in their seed, and the men keep close in their wake and already have the gardens in an advanced state of cultivation.

Mrs. Peyton, who has been quite an invalid during the winter, has recovered sufficiently to visit her friends in Goston. Upon her return she expects to open the hotel for her summer guests.

Maj. Lawrence, president of the Fish and Game Club, writes that he will be down with a number of carpenters to build a log hotel for the use of the club during the fishing and hunting season.

Misses Edna and Bettie Harrington were over seeing the creek yesterday and after having injured the fishing by rod and line. Many good hunters demand the practice of snaring and netting the game, but the wholesale destruction of small fish is much more to be deplored.

Easter Sunday has come and gone.

The sun is fast setting in all his glory after having shed his beautiful, bright rays upon the country round about. The Sunday School celebrated the day by having an egg hunt, and each scholar was remembered in the many nests that the Easter hen made in the churchyard.

They say a workman is known by his chips, judgment from his tools.

These women of genius, sir, are the very d—l when you take them on the w—tack. I know very well that I my—self—am not a genius, but I am a—able at best—am to have one of them for my helmate, and I expect nothing but that our life will be the most turbulent, incongruous thing on earth—a mixture of horse and wormwood, the sweetest and bitterest—or, as it were, at one time the clearest and sunshiny weather in nature, then with windswept skies and frost; the sun—then—then—then—

SAMPLE.

Gardening is the order of the day.

Ed. McFie was in town last Sunday.

Saturday was all fool's day and—oh, my! Eugene Connor went to Rome Friday.

Mrs. A. C. Hunter went to Cloverport Friday.

Mrs. Clara Connor, accompanied by Miss Millie Connor, of Rome, Ind., was a guest of Mrs. E. Connor Saturday and Sunday.

Yours Truly,

E. A. BALDWIN.

Easter Neckwear!

Time flies! Here's Easter again, only three days off. Have you bought your yet? The only way to really enjoy Easter is to buy your wife the prettiest bonnet and yourself the prettiest scarf you can find.

It was long ago settled that the "Early bird catches the worm" and it is certainly just as true that the early buyer catches the prettiest Easter Scarf.

How Pretty

The styles are this year. Here they lie by the hundred in our cases, dainty and delicate as a bed of Easter lillies and only waiting to be picked by Easter buyers. They are so pretty that we shall take pleasure in showing them whether you buy or not.
